

Deutsch-Russische Juristenvereinigung e.V.
Германо-Российская ассоциация юристов
Rechtsstaat - Menschenrechte - Demokratie

INVITATION

The German-Russian Law Association invites to a webinar on Thursday, 25 June 2026
17.00 – 18.30 CEST

On the topic:

Application of Russia related sanctions in Germany, Belgium and UK

Moderated by: Dr. Tanja Galander, lawyer and partner at GvW Graf von Westphalen, Berlin and co-chairman of DRJV

Speakers:

Prof. Cédric Alter, Alter – Vanderstappen – Robert, Brussels

Belgium at the epicenter of sanctions related litigation as the seat of the European institutions and of Euroclear - position of local authorities regarding freezing of assets and release of frozen property

Cédric ALTER is a professor of Business law at the Brussels University and well-known arbitrator and litigator in both domestic and international cases. He has been involved in many sanctions related litigation proceedings, including the landmark Bank of Saint Petersburg case, before the Belgian ordinary and administrative courts, as well as the General Court of the European Union.

Daniel Stepanov, Sterling Law, London

Practice of UK OFSI in respect of freezing and unfreezing of assets

Daniel Stepanov is a Solicitor of England and Wales and a Russian-qualified lawyer with extensive experience in sanctions, financial crime, regulatory compliance, and cross-border disputes. He advises individuals, corporations, financial institutions, and professional service providers on sanctions risk management, sanctions and export control licensing, designation challenges, and compliance frameworks. Daniel is also a Professional Member of the International Compliance Association (ICA).

Dr. Axel Boës, KDB.legal, Hamburg, co-chairman of DRJV

Practice of German Bundesbank in respect of freezing and unfreezing of assets

Dr. Axel Boës is a lawyer in Hamburg and co-chairman of the DRJV. He has more than 20 years' experience in EU-Russian legal relations and is frequently advising on questions of sanctions and sanction's compliance.

Participation is free of charge but requires registration under

anmeldungen@drjv.org

The weblink for the participation via Zoom will be provided to the registered participants.